Steps

1. Post a complete set of the documentary requirements to: Citizenship Division, Philippine Embassy in London, 6 Suffolk Street, London SW1Y 4HG.
2. Once your petition has been approved, the Citizenship Officer will email you a link to the Oath Taking Appointment Portal so you can schedule an appointment for the administration of the Oath of Allegiance. The Oath Taking Ceremony will take place at The Philippine Embassy, 10 Suffolk Street, SW1Y 4HG. Only petitioners will be allowed inside the venue. Minor dependents are not required to attend the Oath Taking Ceremony.
3. Bring the original copies of your documentary requirements and supporting documents during your scheduled visit and present these to the Citizenship Officer.
4. Sign all relevant documents and wait for the Oath Taking Ceremony to begin.
5. Take the Oath of Allegiance.

Important Reminders

- The Embassy may request additional supporting documents as needed in order to establish the conditions required by law.
- While Philippine Bureau of Immigration issuance SMB-2014-045 considers the RA 9225 documents (dual citizenship documents) as proof of Philippine citizenship aside from a valid Philippine passport, there is not guarantee that airlines will allow those who are unable to present a valid Philippine passport to board even if they are able to present their RA 9225 documents. We recommend that you check with your airline regarding their boarding requirements.
- The Embassy cannot expedite the application process on the grounds that an applicant has already bought airline tickets.
- Applicants may apply for a new Philippine passport on the same date as their Oath Taking but must provide a separate, complete set of requirements. For the purposes of passport renewal, only Philippine Statistics Authority-issued civil registry documents are accepted.
